The feelings, thoughts and beliefs which have led to the creation of the incarnation is very rich. Although the doctrine presents and the belief in the incarnation of God is not the end, these beliefs and doctrines are the most important part of the Christian belief. Not only that; it presents a greater reach. Like a great mother in the world, it believes in the incarnation of Jesus Christ. It believes that He is the son of God, i.e. through a son, it became the son of God. It does not believe that God has only one son. In that respect, our belief is eternal. God made the incarnation in order to deliver us from the slavery of the world and to give us the love and support of the world. It gives us a person who has been sent to give all the gifts of love and kindness. The nativity, a birth like that of a common person, as St. Mary says in the Magnificat, was the birth of the King of kings and Lord of lords. The difference that exists is that the nativity of Jesus Christ had all the greatness and blessedness of a human being. His birth was a royal birth. And His kingdom is greater than that of human life. This belief not only gives peace to the lives of Christians, but also the knowledge of belief in the one who has been sent to us, Jesus Christ. It gives us the certainty of faith. God's salvation and peace in the world and in the life of each Christian cannot be formed and achieved with any other beliefs than those. Therefore, true conviction and belief in the incarnation of Christ is the greatest and most proper way to worship the Lord. God has given us the example of Jesus Christ. All these things should be written in the life and thoughts of Jesus Christ. His example should be followed. His acts should be remembered. These things should be followed in our lives. We should live the life of Jesus Christ. One who tries to give an account of the person and nature of Jesus Christ in the life and thoughts of each person, lives the life of Jesus Christ. He lives the example of the disciple. He shows us, as it is written, "Be ye therefore perfect as your Father in heaven is perfect" (Mt. 5:48). God is the life of the life of Jesus Christ. He is the law of the law of Jesus Christ. Jesus Christ is the proof that he lives. We live by his commandments. We say: "
