Thailand's Pee Pi Kuk has been named as the official host country of the prestigious Asiad 2018, which is scheduled for October 9 to 15 in Jakarta, Indonesia. In a press release by the Manila-based sports and cultural organisation ASEAN Committee, Pee Pi Kuk has been named as the host country and will serve as the focal point for the region. The ASEAN Games are an athletic event for athletes from across the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN). In the three previous editions, the Philippines has held the Games and will be hosting the fourth edition from October 9 to 15, 2018. Apart from the Philippines, the games will also be staged in Myanmar, Thailand and Malaysia. "We are humbled that the Filipino government has chosen our country as the host of the 'Asiad 2018', a multi-sport event that will strengthen the ties between the Philippines and ASEAN's other member states," said Pee Pi Kuk in a press statement. The event is also held as the preparations for the 2023 Southeast Asian Games in Manila. "The Philippine Sports Commission has the utmost appreciation of what our host for Asiad will mean for the country. We hope that the celebration of Asiad will strengthen the strong relations among the sports-loving citizens of ASEAN and the Philippines," said Dinky Soliman, ASEAN Committee secretary-general. Officials are yet to release the details regarding the Philippine contingent at the Games, which is expected to feature 40 sports and an estimated 20,000 participants. The decision to have Pee Pi Kuk as the host country for the games is a big hit to baseball enthusiast in the country. The SEA Games is one of the biggest sporting events in the country and is widely viewed as the secondary SEA Games to the Southeast Asian Games, which is staged every two years in the Philippines. Unlike other sports, baseball has yet to win the SEA Games title. The Philippines finished in fourth place in both the 2016 edition and the 2014 edition. Trouble in paradise The Asiad games will be
