I would probably just go . Call it Arsenal's dirty little secret. Arsenal are the only team in the top five leagues to have scored no-decisions over the two-legged affair. It's one of their biggest problems. Most teams can afford a few poor performances – there are always injuries or suspensions, and only a handful of teams play all their games in regulation all season. But at Arsenal, this is their career-defining barometer. That's why this season, Arsène Wenger needs to solve this problem. He cannot afford another season where Arsenal are seen to be soft
